

ARE YOUR RIGHTS BEING VIOLATED?

DID YOU KNOW:
TITLE IX GUARANTEES PROTECTION FROM
THREATS OF LOST OPPORTUNITY OR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE *DUE TO PREGNANCY.

This means that professors and other staff may not punish pregnant students as a result of a medically necessary absence. As long as you are in good academic standing with the university and do not voluntarily withdraw from your team or classes, pregnant students cannot have their academic or athletic scholarships revoked due to pregnancy or be subject to penalty regarding any other type of financial aid.

Contact pregnancyresources@studentsforlife.org or visit www.pregnantoncampus.org if you feel your rights are being violated.
